

March/April 2008

Private Sector News

Name Change for Industry Leader, CERF

Continental Environmental Redevelopment Financial, LLC (CERF) has changed its name to EnviroFinance Group, LLC. The company will carry this new distinction into its successful practice as a lender for brownfield redevelopment projects throughout the U.S. EnviroFinance Group, LLC provides senior and subordinated secured project financing for the acquisition, cleanup and redevelopment of brownfields. The company's unique approach to financing allows remediation, horizontal development and/or vertical construction activities to occur simultaneously, thereby facilitating faster and more cost-effective projects. Borrowers include commercial site owners, real estate developers and public entities.